In Brief: Whitenessâ€”an ideological practice that can extend beyond notions of racial supremacy to other areas of dominanceâ€”has permeated every aspect of librarianship, extending even to the initiatives we claim are committed to increasing diversity.

White Librarianship in Blackface: Diversity Initiatives in LIS

Introduction and Overview This review is intended to both provide background on the Scirus search engine and discuss its usability. It is not an exhaustive technical review, but rather an overview that can help librarians determine if and when to use Scirus in reference and instruction environments.

Scirus -- for Scientific Information

In the West, the first public libraries were established under the Roman Empire as each succeeding emperor strove to open one or many which outshone that of his predecessor. Rome's first public library was established by Asinius Pollio. Pollio was a lieutenant of Julius Caesar and one of his most ardent supporters. After his military victory in Illyria, Pollio felt he had enough fame and ...

Creating Family Literacy Focus Initiatives. Family literacy programming has a long history in public libraries. Family literacy @ your library probably started when a childrenâ€™s librarian carefully selected a familiar storybook, gathered children and parents in a semi-circle, held the book so everyone could see the pictures, assumed her best storybook reading voice, and read the book from ...

OCLC is a global library cooperative that provides shared technology services, original research and community programs for its membership and the library community at large.

About OCLC

A slogan is a memorable motto or phrase used in a clan, political, commercial, religious, and other context as a repetitive expression of an idea or purpose, with the goal of persuading members of the public or a more defined target group. The Oxford Dictionary of English defines a slogan as "a short and striking or memorable phrase used in advertising."
