more, I probably would have put it down if I'd seen the attempted adaptation first.While "The Repossession Mambo" is not a groundbreaking piece of work, Garcia's style is consistent and enjoyable enough to keep most readers entertained. The created world is believable, rarely breaking continuity with it's own universal laws.A fun read bordering ...

The Repossession Mambo... The premise of this book is awesome. I saw the movie first and absolutely loved it. When I found the book in the book section of my local Meijer market, I was thrilled. This book feels so real, it's like one of the repo men is just sitting down and talking to you and telling a cool story.
